

Forum on the Saudi-Led War on Yemen

Thursday March 15 at 7 – 9 pm

Why Should Americans Care?

- U.S. Supplying Arms and Military Support
- Humanitarian Crisis of Enormous Proportion with Cholera Epidemic
 - Destabilizing Middle East

Learn About the Situation and What You Can Do as an American

Speakers:

Kathy Kelly: Cofounder and Coordinator Voices for Creative Nonviolence; Lived in Middle East for years

Carmen Trotta: Member NYC Catholic Workers; Organizer of Vigil in NYC Against US Involvement in Yemen

Lu Aya: Member Peace Poets “A Family that Makes Music and Poetry for the Liberation of the Human Family”

Additional Speakers: To Be Announced

"At its core, war is impoverishment. War's genesis and ultimate end is in the poverty of our hearts. If we can realize that the world's liberation begins within those troubled hearts, then we may yet find peace... What good has ever come from the slaughter of the innocents?" Kathy Kelly
